

Navigating the Adult Service System New DDD Eligibility Rules

October 24, 2013

This seminar will provide an overview of eligibility for the State of NJ Division of Developmental Disabilities (DDD) and the new DDD Medicaid requirements. It will also cover how these requirements relate to accessing services and supports after age 21.

This seminar is most appropriate for families who have young adults (18 years of age or older) who are planning for transition from school or adult life and families of adults who have not yet achieved eligibility.
