Inclusion Works: Improving Literacy Achievement!

Join us for a discussion of best practices that support the inclusion of students with disabilities within general education programs. Family members, students and educators will share their experiences with inclusive education in language arts and literacy to improve literacy achievement.

Participants Will Learn:

- Why inclusion in language arts and literacy is important;
- Best practices that support the inclusion of children with disabilities in general education language arts and literacy classrooms; and
- Strategies to support your child in inclusive language arts classrooms.

Target Audience

Parents, grandparents, caretakers, and educators

Professional Development

Certificates for professional development hours will be available.

Co-sponsored by New Jersey Department of Education
Office of Special Education Programs (NJSEP) and Statewide Parent Advocacy Network (SPAN); Funded by IDEA Part B
