

Free Parent/Professional Workshop Series

Autism and the Decision to Drive

Date: November 18, 2015

Presenter: Beth Rolland, OTR, CDRS
Certified Driving Rehabilitation Specialist,
Kessler Institute

Time: 7:00–9:00 p.m.

Join us to view a 23-minute video entitled “Autism and the Decision to Drive with Jerry Newport.” A renowned author and tireless autism advocate, Jerry Newport received his diagnosis of Asperger syndrome in 1995. Jerry has driven professionally for over 45 years, and shares his perspective in this video, which covers topics such as:

- Focus and Good Driving Habits
- Choosing the Right Instructor
- Driving as a Career
- Judgement
- Social Considerations on the Road
- Managing the Sensory Environment

After the video presentation, Beth Rolland will present a brief overview of the driving program offered by Kessler Institute in Saddle Brook, followed by a question-and-answer session.

Co-sponsored by the Bergen County Special Services CAPE Resource Center and the Bergen County Chapter of ASPEN
